

From the Office of the President, Dr. Chris Fox

Dear Fellow Palm Beach Road Runners,

Every four years the world competes for the coveted gold medal during the Olympic games. Countries rise together and cheer on their own. I love the Olympics. Not only do I feel patriotic but I'm inspired by the athletes and their stories. No matter the sport they compete in, they are the best of the best and have earned the right to represent the United States of America or their home country. I hope you watched and were inspired by these great athletes and their stories of overcoming hardships or injury just so they can compete.

There is not a better time to set a new goal for yourself or tweak a goal that you already have. Or, even inspire someone to start running that might need that extra push to get off the couch. It is August, and it is ridiculously hot here in South Florida and many are starting marathon training, but now is your time to shine. Have faith in yourself and your mental toughness and go for it. Go for your own gold medal!

Chris
President
