

Presidents Message

The Palm Beach Roadrunners had one of our best attended socials ever on May 21 at the Burger Bar in Palm Beach Gardens. Great turnout, great food, great prize drawings, and best of all, great company. Madeleine Lenke, our own one woman paparazzi, took lots of pictures, some of which are on these pages.

Speaking of Madeleine, she ran a marathon and a 10K in Sweden on her recent trip there.

Locally, many of our members ran the Women for Women race, and the Run for the Pineapple.

With the beginning of summer, there are fewer races, but we still have the Sailfish Strider series in Stuart, and the Dreher Park race to look forward to. Many of us are starting to train for fall marathons. Adrienne and Mike Papa, Suzanne and Sal Senzatimore, Eileen Turenne and Kylan Koblitz are signed up for New York, and Kylan is signed up for Berlin, too!

Bob Anderson is working on a new course for the Run for Pies that promises to be the best ever!

Randy Garvey was named to the Shredded Wheat National Team.

Enjoy the summer, and keep running!
